

Here's

To the Horse-Show's Success.

Southern ingenuity has placed the South in the front rank of fine horse breeders—and humanity bows to a "fiery steed."

And, as the student outgrows the master, so is Southern enterprise making her the "Home of Fashion," inviting distant ones to view her achievements. Visitors to our new store exclaimed: "How was this done—such a profusion of artistic jewelry—every piece a type? What more need be said? Just one thing: Satisfaction in buying jewelry lies in getting the greatest value for your money, not only in appearance, but in actual quality."

We show all the new productions of Silverware and Cut-Glass, as well as many beautiful designs of Colonial pieces. Come and see the display, it only to tempt your eyes on the most beautiful collection ever shown in this city. You'll be surprised at the lowness of price, comparatively speaking, when you consider what you would have to pay for these productions if purchased elsewhere. Now, won't you come.

Horse-Show Novelties in profusion.

ALL THE WORLD HERE TO SEE HORSE SHOW

Brook, Mrs. W. Gordon McCabe, Miss Roberta Allen, Mrs. O. H. Punsen, Mrs. Floyd Hughes, Mrs. W. F. Tompkins, Mrs. Barton H. Wiles, Mrs. John B. Lightfoot, Mrs. Christopher Tompkins, Mrs. Edmund T. Reed, Mrs. Charles Davenport, Miss Nellie Boykin and others. Mrs. Herbert A. Claiborne, the president of the Virginia Dames, hopes that members from Williamsburg and Norfolk will join the Richmond party October 24th.

The social afternoon at the Woman's Club promises to be unusually gay and attractive next Monday. The newly arranged rooms with many improvements and added articles of furniture, and the fact that nearly all the club members will have a special guest with them, will attract to the prospect of the club the infectious Horse Show spirit which pervades the entire city elsewhere.

Professor Stockton Axon, of Princeton University, will open the lecture course of the Woman's Club for 1902-1903, October 27th, when he will talk either on "Carlyle or Emerson," probably on Carlyle. Professor Axon's scholarly attainments and strong individuality were so thoroughly impressed upon all who heard him last year, that the announcement of his reappearance will be heralded with distinct pleasure.

Miss Anna Vernon Dorsey will deliver the second lecture in the course November 14th. Miss Dorsey is very talented and wonderfully trained. She comes to Richmond with the prestige of a great reputation, having created a furore in London drawing-rooms, where she appeared under the auspices of titled patronesses.

The monthly meeting of the Richmond Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, will be held October 15th at 4:30 P. M. in Lee Camp Hall. Reports will be made from the Lexington convention, and delegates will be appointed to the New Orleans convention, to be held November 15th.

The ladies of St. Luke's Episcopal Church Guild will hold a "Rag Fair," beginning Monday next, October 13th, and continuing through the week. Contributions may be sent to Mrs. Hattie, No. 213 Washington Street, and the ladies trust that their efforts in behalf of the needy may meet with a generous response.

A number of prominent Church Hill ladies met at the home of Dr. William H. Parker last Wednesday afternoon in the election of the Board of Directors for the Commonwealth Hospital, and organized a board of lady managers, with a membership of about sixty. The following officers were elected: Mrs. Ransom D. Garrison, president; vice-presidents, Mrs. C. W. T. Atkinson, of the Third Presbyterian Church; Mrs. J. L. Tallaferra, of St. John's Episcopal Church; Mrs. C. W. Massie, of St. James M. E. Church; Mrs. Rebecca, of the Third Presbyterian Church; Mrs. William H. Parker, of the Third Presbyterian Church; Mrs. George M. Rogers, of Patton M. E. Church; Mrs. James, of St. Patrick's; Miss Mamie Williams, of Leigh-Street Baptist; Miss Abbie Hancock, of Broad-Street Methodist; and vice-presidents from other churches to be appointed. Miss Hunter Ferguson was appointed secretary; Mrs. Joseph E. Allen, assistant secretary; Mrs. Wyatt S. Donley, treasurer. Meetings will be held the second Thursday in each month at the homes of members. A committee of three—Mrs. J. N. Schooler, Mrs. Chubert and Miss Clara Chalk—was appointed to draw up the constitution and by-laws.

The hospital will be furnished by the ladies, several of the rooms as individual boudoirs. The number of charity beds will be limited only by the means of the board. The hospital will be located at the corner of Main and Thirtieth Streets. It will be forty-five feet front, with a hall through the center, and three stories in height. It will have about twelve private rooms, four wards, office, parlor, dining-room, diet kitchen, apartments for nurses and modern conveniences. Mr. P. D. White is the architect to whom the contract has been given and work on the hospital will begin in the early spring.

The "Kate Wheeler" Whist Club held its fall meeting on Tuesday afternoon, October 7th, at the home of Mrs. A. J. Moore, the new president of the club. The highest score north and south was made by Mrs. Charles L. Todd, who played "dummy," and the highest score east and west by Mrs. J. N. Jones and Mrs. Walker Scott. There will be no meeting of the club next week, owing to the Horse Show, but the club will meet on Tuesday afternoon, October 21st, at the residence of Mrs. Charles E. Wingo.

ENTERTAINMENTS.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Scott Parrish will have a horse party at their country place, "Mimbova," during Horse Show week. They will have as their guests Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Beasley, Jr., of Auburn, N. Y., and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wellington Back, of London, who reached New York October 11th. Mrs. Wack visited Richmond a few winters ago, when, as the beautiful Lillian de Blois, she made many friends.

Mr. Garnett Tabb entertained a few friends informally Thursday in honor of Miss Hester Cabell Tabb's guests, Mrs. Carradine and Miss Helen Ingersoll, of Keswick, Albemarle county.

Mrs. Clement C. McPhail was the hostess during the past week of a delightful party, in which Mrs. James A. Walsh, Mr. E. T. D. Myers, Jr., Mrs. Calvin Whiteley, Mrs. Beirne Blair and Mrs. Edward Mayo were among the guests.

Miss Mary Anderson, a very attractive member of the Woman's College faculty, will have as her Horse Show guest Mrs. Kaufman, of Ivy, Va.

Miss Emily Armistead, a charming debutante of this season, will occupy a seat in the box with Mr. and Mrs. John S. Elliott for one evening of show week.

Miss Mattie Baskerville, another charming debutante, will enjoy the pleasures of show week.

Misses Emily and Mary Jennings and Miss Mary Rogers are a trio with numbers of elegances for the Horse Show.

Mrs. Lewis Wheat will have as her guests during Horse Show week Mr. and Mrs. Pinckney Williamson, of Danville;

The Horse-Show Success Depends on Sumptuous Setting

Our Ladies' Raiment No Inconsiderable Item in Its Prosperity.

The most important event for some time past is the Horse Show of this week. People will come from far and wide to attend it, and not only the show will be scrutinized, but the people, the city, and its prosperity. To represent this city as it should be shown, the leading people must make a gorgeous appearance, as much in their person as in their houses. Many will, we know, be elaborately clothed, for they have come to Kaufmann's and satisfied their every desire.

Then, why not you? Our stock of novelties is the finest, the largest, and the best assorted in the whole of Richmond, while at the same time we have aimed to give extra values in all the fine apparel we are displaying.

Exquisite Millinery.

Hats can be ever so correct in shape, trimming, and color effect, but if they lack individuality to suit the wearer, the artistic feature is lost. Each of our Hats in some way differs from its neighbor, and thus our display is held in esteem, for its exclusiveness and correctness of style.

This week we display an assortment of autumn millinery unsurpassed anywhere, even in the big cities. Among the imported Hats are those of our own designs. We are showing some new and attractive models in black and the prevailing color combinations. Below we mention a few specially adapted to the Horse Show week:

A Swell Coaching Hat of white rough felt, the back bent into the colonial dip, making a pretty curl front. It has ribbon draped around the crown and caught in under the back in artistic loops, one large white French pompadour ornament.

Another is an elegant Driving Hat of pure white suede, faced with shirred chiffon, and Amazon feather trailing around the under brim, meeting scarf of canary colored chiffon.

An exquisite Dress Hat of the Gainsborough shape is of ermine, faced with Irish point lace; two black and white Amazon feathers curl around the crown and droop over the hair, touched here and there with orange velvet.

These are but a few. Our stock comprises about 250 trimmed hats—many quite as interesting as the above.

Popular Neckwear in silk, ostrich, and fur. Paris set the fashion, designating it the mode to wear Ruffs and Capes of silk. These are made up in many interesting ideas, such as the Ruche with long flowing ends. These sell for $5 and as low as one dollar. Then the triple Cape effect, with full ruche and cape ends, and for more elaborate designs the set of Ruche and Muff, of two-toned liberty silk with streamers and rosettes of satin ribbon.

The Prevailing Styles in Tailored Suits.

Very Dressy Suit of fine quality satin finished broadcloth. Blouse Jacket has fancy Persian vest, new sleeves, inlaid peau de sole collar, is trimmed in crochet ornaments. Double skirt with postillion back around bottom of jacket. Skirt is kilted, each pleat piped in peau de sole and finished at knee with straps and ornaments, and made on extra heavy silk drop skirt. A suit dress—$50.00

Nobby Walking Suit of imported rough cheviot, military coat, outer edges formed of wide hercules braid, military collar, new sleeves, finished in like manner, front finished with handsome silk frogs. Kilt skirt elaborately stitched. A strictly up-to-date garment, $32.50

Perfect Silk Skirts.

How elegant is a well fitting silk skirt. Our variety comprise the best ideas, copies of exclusive designs from European models, but the price! Our figures are but a trifle of the imported price.

Peau de Soie Skirts, seven gored, each seam formed of openwork braid, the graduated net circular flounce, is trimmed in mouseline de sole ruffles, made over a nice quality mercerized drop skirt. $10.00

Handsome Taffeta Skirt, of excellent quality, each seam finished in herringbone, lower part of skirt trimmed in tucking and lace medallion. $15.00

Novelty Skirt of fine quality taffeta silk, made after the new models, pleated to knee, with kilted bottom, made over silk drop skirt. $22.50

Novelty Silk Waists.

New Plaid Waists, in blue and green Scotch plaid, trimmed in stitched bands of black taffeta. $5.00

Dressy Waist of white peau de sole, hemstitched in black and trimmings in black and white. A waist suitable for house or evening wear. $6.50

Very Swell Crepe de Chine Waist in light blue and pink, tucked all over back, front, and sleeves hemstitched in black and white. $8.95

We have Silk Waists at less price, in fact, as low as $3.38, and better qualities, and exclusive designs, at prices ranging up to. $35.00

Dressy Silk Coats.

The extreme style in these novelty coats was considered too broad, but now demand has made them the correct wear. What more swell coat can be worn for driving or street than these 37-inch full-back garments? Of course, we have the three-quarter lengths, but fashion speaks more favorably for the shorter coat.

We have them at all prices up to $42.50, but we give here suggestions of the popular-priced garments:

Double-Braided Peau de Soie Coat with inverted plait back, large revers, and lined throughout in satin. $12.50

Monte Carlo Coat of peau de sole or taffeta silk, trimmed in stitched silk bands and lined in heavy white satin. $15.00

New Box Coat, in extra heavy taffeta, strapped in silk, revers and large flowing sleeves, faced in Arabian lace, lined throughout in white satin. $13.50

Kaufmann & Co., Fourth and Broad Streets.
